I Helpthe Sick

I Take the Risk.

For a full month, any sick one can use my prescription -Dr. Shoop's Restorative-entirely at my risk. I will arrange with a druggist in your vicinity, so that you can secure six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Restorative to make the test. You may take it a full month on trial. If it succeeds the cost to you is $5.50. If it fails the cost is mine, and mine alone

I will then ask the druggist to bill the cost to me. The decision, as to pay, is left to you entirely. I have found that most people are honest. My records show that thirty-nine out of forty have paid. This proves the honesty of the people and the success of my Restorative,

I am so confident, so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Restorative will help you, I make this offer. For thirteen years it has stood the test. Your confidence will equal mine when you learn what it can accomplish.

Write me today. You cannot learn too much about ways to keep well. I could not make this offer if failures were frequent. Sign and mail this coupon now.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL GAMES

Yale and Princeton Win While Harvard Loses.

Pittsburg, Oct. 10.-The second largest crowd that ever attended a ball game at Exposition park greeted the American and National League champions when they appeared on the field to play the fourth and last home game of the series. Boston won easily, making three srtaight victories for the visitors. The magnificent record made by Phillippi in winning the three games he pitched against the Boston pennant winners led the crowd to think that he could do it again, but in this they were disappointed As he walked to the center of the dia mond to begin the game he was given the greatest reception ever tendered a player on th local grounds and presented with a diamond pin. He pitched a good steady game, but Boston's hits came when most needed while Pittsburg could not bunch theirs. Young pitched a fine game for Boston and was very steady with men on bags. Three bases were again allowed for a hit into the crowd. ## OLDER THAN THE PYRAMII

The disease known as Contagious Blood Poison has become the curse of all mankind. It is universal and world-wide, and existed centuries ago and is older even than the Pyramids.

Upon the bodies of the ancient Egyptian mummies nodes and knots and other unmistakable symptoms of this horrible blood taint have been discovered. Traces of mercurial poisoning have also been found in the bones and joints, showing this mineral was used in the treatment of Blood Poison in those early times. In all uncivilized, as well as enlightened nations, this vile disease is found to-day in all its loathsomeness, entailing untold suffering not only upon the one who contracts it, but saddest of all is the humiliation and shame that is brought into the lives of the innocent by this degrading malady. So contagious is it that one can become inoculated by drinking from the same vessel, shaking hands with or handling the clothing of one infected with this disease. It is often transmitted from parents to children, and sores, scrofulous swellings, severe skin eruptions, sore eyes and catarrhal troubles are some of the effects.

The first outward sign of Contagious Blood Poison to tell you the great good your remety has done me in a case of Contagions Blood is a small sore or blister. As the poisonous virus spreads through the system the glands of the groins swell, a red eruption appears upon the body, and ulcers and sores break out in the mouth and throat, the hair and eye-brows drop out and the body is covered with copper-colored splotches and sores, and the poison even works its way into the bones and joints and attacks the nerves.

The time-worn remedies-Mercury and Potash-are still used in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison, but the effects of these drugs upon the system are almost as bad as the disease itself, and the best witnesses against these remedies are those who have used them longest. Mercury only smothers the poison in the system, and the disease is liable to die of the virus, no matter how severe the return at any time, and that metallic taste in the mouth, tender gums, ulcerated throat, and other returning symptoms, show the poison is still active and the patient far from a cure. S. S. S. contains no mineral ingredients whatever, and we offer $1,000 for proof to the contrary. It is a simple vegetable remedy, but a sure antidote for the virus of Contagious

Blood Poison, and a certain cure for this horrible malady. It attacks the disease promptly, the improvement beginning as soon as the system gets under the influence of the medicine, and continues until every vestige of the poison is driven from the blood, and the patient is completely and permanently restored to health.
